

Name: _____ Computer #: _____ Date: _____

Article Name: _____

Question	Info from Article	Question	Info from Article
1. What is the author's opinion?		7. Does this author establish authority? (Shows s/he knows about this topic and should be respected to write about it).
2. Does the author use facts to support his or her opinion? (List 2)		8. Are any "big names" mentioned? (other people in a position of authority who agree with the author's opinion?) If so, explain
3. Does the author include any personal experiences / observations? Describe.		9. List examples of hooks / engaging ways the author tries to drag in the reader.
4. Who is the intended audience and why?		10. What is the author's tone? (if s/he was reading it aloud, how would they sound?)
5. How does the writer acknowledge the other side of the issue / opinion?		11. Now what? (After reading this article, what does the author want you to do about it to help 'fix' the problem?)
6. Explain how this issue affects the author.		12. Do you agree with the author's opinion? Why or why not?

Article Name: _____

Question	Info from Article	Question	Info from Article
1. What is the author's opinion?		7. Does this author establish authority? (Shows s/he knows about this topic and should be respected to write about it).
2. Does the author use facts to support his or her opinion? (List 2)		8. Are any "big names" mentioned? (other people in a position of authority who agree with the author's opinion?) If so, explain
3. Does the author include any personal experiences / observations? Describe.		9. List examples of hooks / engaging ways the author tries to drag in the reader.
4. Who is the intended audience and why?		10. What is the author's tone? (if s/he was reading it aloud, how would they sound?)
5. How does the writer acknowledge the other side of the issue / opinion?		11. Now what? (After reading this article, what does the author want you to do about it to help 'fix' the problem?)
6. Explain how this issue affects the author.		12. Do you agree with the author's opinion? Why or why not?

Role assignments:

Group member 1 - answer questions 1, 3, 12

Group member 2 - answer questions 2, 8, 11

Group member 3 - answer questions 5, 6, 9

Group member 4 - answer questions 4, 7, 10